America's Keswick Victorious Life Tour: Footsteps of Paul with Greek Islands Cruise Led by Dr. Joe and Kim Olachea 12 days, April 17-28, 2018 Only $3895 from Newark or your home airport

Day 1, Tuesday, April 17: Fly from Newark or your home airport to Thessaloniki, Greece's northernmost major city, capital of the Macedonia region of Greece, set on the beautiful Thermaic Bay of the Aegean Sea.

Day 2, Wednesday, April 18: Arrive in Greece's second city, Thessaloniki, where St. Paul stayed and preached several weeks on his Second Missionary Journey in about 50 AD, converting so many souls the local authorities kicked him and his companions out of town for having "turned the world upside down" (Acts 17:6). Paul continued the care of his Thessalonian flock with the earliest two epistles in the New Testament. Our deluxe hotel for two nights is near the harbor and old city. Breakfast and dinner are included each day of the land tour (all meals on the cruise).

Day 3, Thursday, April 19: After Paul received the vision of preaching to the Europeans, beginning in Macedonia (northern Greece, Acts 16), he landed in the Neapolis harbor, which is modern day Kavala that we will visit. From Neapolis, Paul went to Philippi (16:12ff), where we will see the traditional site of the baptism of Lydia, first European convert, and the ruins on the city of ancient Philippi, including the site that remembers the cell where Paul and Silas were imprisoned before the Lord miraculously freed them and the family of the Philippian jailer was baptized. Return to Thessaloniki for dinner and overnight.

Day 4, Friday, April 20: Once Paul had been given the left foot of fellowship from Philippi and Thessalonica, he traveled to Berea where men and women of noble character, both Jews and Greeks, believed the Word (Acts 17:10-14). At Berea we study and worship at the bema or raised stone from which Paul preached. We then visit nearby Vergina to see royal tombs of the family of Alexander the Great, the richness of which is staggering as we will experience descending into the actual tombs to see the sculptures, painting, and gold jewelry. Travel through dramatic countryside to Meteora and the amazing Byzantine monasteries perched atop gigantic rock pinnacles in one of the world's most bizarre and fascinating geological formations. Overnight and dinner at a lovely four-star hotel in the village of Kalambaka.

Day 5, Saturday, April 21: Interesting rural scenery along the way to Delphi, which the ancient Greeks considered the omphalos (navel or center) of the world.

Here the Delphic oracle muttered cryptic prophecies as sacred vapors issuing from the underworld cast her into a trance from her seat in the Temple of Apollo, the grand remains of which still stand on a mountaintop overlooking breathtakingly green hills and valleys. The museum at Delphi is a gem, small enough to be enjoyed quickly but with every exhibit truly striking. Drive on the Athens for dinner and overnight at a pleasant four-star hotel.

Day 6, Sunday, April 22: Full-day tour of the highlights of Athens including the iconic Sytagma (Constitution) Square, right across from the House of Parliament guarded by photogenic tassel-festooned wooden-clogged guards. Stop at the Panathenaico Stadium, where the first modern Olympics were held in 1896. And, of course, ascend the Acropolis, the very symbol of the Grandeur that was Greece. The two areas of Athens most associated with the Apostle Paul are Mars Hill (or Areopagus) and the Agora (Acts 17:15ff). We will go down into the ancient Agora or market place, where a recreated ancient shopping mall with a porch called a stoa shows us what gave rise to the name of the Stoic philosophers with whom Paul debated at that very spot. When Paul's claims about the resurrection intrigued the city's leaders, he was taken to the top of the Areopagus to argue his belief in the famous sermon about "the unknown God" (Acts 17:19-31). Those who wish will have the opportunity to climb to the top of the famous hill, re-affirming with Paul the Gospel of the Risen Christ. Time during the day for lunch and some shopping in the famous Plaka tourist area at the base of the Parthenon. Dinner and overnight in Athens.

Day 7, Monday, April 23: This morning board a ship from the Celestial Cruises line and sail to the world-famous island of Mykonos. The town is a small architectural miracle, with its gleaming whitewashed buildings and windmills--and one of the most cosmopolitan places in the world. Guided walking tour of the city is included, led by the tour escort who will be with the group throughout the cruise.

Celestial cruise line is proudly Greek. While not floating palaces like an American cruise ship, Celestial ships are clean, comfortable, with good food and amenities—good reviews from recent groups. Three meals a day are included, plus unlimited non-alcoholic drinks. Nearly every daylight hour is spent at the interesting ports, just meals and sleep on board. For special value, shore excursions are included in Ephesus, Rhodes, and Heraklion--along with free guided walking tours of Mykonos and Santorini. All tips are included throughout the tour, including on the cruise.

Day 8, Tuesday, April 24: After the overnight cruise to the Turkish coast, the included shore excursion drives through the colorful town of Kusadasi to reach biblical Ephesus, where Paul spent a major part of his missionary journey (Acts 19) and of course wrote the Letter to the Ephesians (one of the Seven Churches of the Revelation). The guided walking tour goes through one of the most magnificent excavations in the world. See the Odeon (concert hall), the Fountain of Trajan, the heated Baths of Scolastika, the Temple of Hadrian and the Latrians, the Library of Celsus, and The Great Theatre, the largest one in antiquity with a capacity of 24,000 where Paul caused a riot (Acts 19:22ff). Walk along the Arcadian Way, where Mark Anthony and Cleopatra once rode in procession. Driving back to Kusadasi and just outside Ephesus, view the Basilica of St. John, which was erected over his grave in the 6th century A.D. by Emperor Justinian. Before returning to the ship, time in the shopping city of Kusadasi, specializing in oriental carpets, jewelry, and leather goods.

Later, sail for the craggily beautiful isle of Patmos, where St John received The Revelation. Optional shore excursions include the countryside and the cave where tradition says St John had his vision. Or the picturesque port village of Scala is a pleasant place to enjoy some free time shopping and wandering.

Day 9, Wednesday, April 25: Spend the day on the sunny island of Rhodes, where once seafarers were greeted by one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World, the Colossus of Rhodes (a "colossal" harbor statue of the sun god Apollo). The shore excursion is included. The old Walled City of Rhodes is most famous as the medieval fortress-kingdom of the Knights of St John. You could easily spend the full day wandering around in the Old City, filled with shopping and cafes and a magnificent palace of the knights—but your included tour will also drive across the countryside to the Bay of Lindos, where Paul is remembered having stopped on his way back to Jerusalem at the end of the Third Missionary Journey (Acts 21:1).

Day 10, Thursday day, April 26: Morning arrival at Heraklion, Crete, where the included shore excursion visits the Minoan Palace of Knossos, home to King Minos and the legendary Minotaur. The Minoan culture was the highest in the world (the first throne in Europe is still there) till it vanished seemingly overnight, perhaps a victim of the tsunami caused by the volcanic destruction of Atlantis. Then, sail north to the isle of Santorini, the most breathtaking of all the Greek islands—and which may have been ancient Atlantis since half of the island sheared off from a volcano. The exquisite whitewashed villages, including the town of Fira, or Thira, cling to volcanic cliffs, accessible only by cable-car or mule.

After you reach the cliff peak, a guided-tour of the city is included.

Day 11, Friday, April 27: Arrive back in the port of Piraeus, Athens, early in the morning and, after breakfast, disembark and begin your trip to Ancient Corinth, the once glorious city near the Isthmus, where Paul met Aquilla and Priscilla and spent a year and a half working and preaching the Gospel (Acts 18). You visit the Archaeological Museum, the Forum, the Temples and the famous Bema, where Paul stood before Gallio accused by the Jews of Corinth. Lunch on your own on the deck of a restaurant beside the drawbridge that opens and closes to let yachts through the scenic Corinth Canal dug to link two oceans. Then, drive to Cenchreae, the little harbor from which Paul sailed back to Asia, thus ending his second missionary journey. Back to Athens for a farewell dinner at a taverna in the Plaka area and hotel overnight.

Day 12, Saturday, April 28: fly back to USA, arriving same day.
